

Mafi Dai

Music: Gabriel Hermansson

Lyrics: Nadin Al Khalidi

No need to go through it all over again,
Let me enjoy this calm morning
No comments about what´ve happened
No questions about what kind of day it´ll be Just a regular morning, but nothing is as it use to be anymore,
After all what´ve been said,
You say things with a cold tone
As if I can´t hear you,
As if you´re a total stranger,
As if your voice has died
Don´t stay for my sake,
Don´t even pass by my thoughts,
Planets seem out of function in this universe
A calm morning, and a bird standing by my window, my thoughts are roaming all around the universe,
and you´re still standing here!
Saying things in that cold tone
I can´t listen to you,
You look like a stranger to me,
Your voice has died
Your words are weird and cold
You pass by,
You come and go
So cold
But, I continue to believe in you!
