

Heli

Your voice is known to me
It brings back the warmth of Heli
A question, a moment
A letter, an address

If you ever walk the homeward way
Would you take this letter to Heli?
And upon return, if we meet again
I will tell the tale of Heli

Heli, they remain far away
A memory that occupy my thoughts
My longing keeps calling
Go then, let me know

How is Heli, my home

You will go while I remain, awaiting news from Heli
You will go while I remain, wondering about Heli

Heli – The family, friends and dear ones, left at home
