

Sadiqi

Talk of books and people confused us
My friend, we are still the same
We haven't given up, we are just wiser
That is why, I adore us

Years have passed
The memory of our words comfort me
Even when far, your thoughts speak to me
That is why, I adore us

Age, irrelevant to us
Our random meetings, satisfying
You remained simple, and I am brief
That is something only you understand

My friend, people will wonder
Theorize, devise and judge
They will call our friendship extinct
That is why, I adore it
